

Stucktaymore House

Stucktaymore House, where memories are made,

A place for family to gather and to play,
Overlooking Loch Tay, with its waters so deep,
Surrounded by hills, where the sheep peacefully sleep.

In the quaint town of Killin, this house stands tall,

A haven for relaxation, away from it all,
Water sports and hiking, golf on the green,
So many activities, in this beautiful scene.

Inside, a media room for movie nights,
A hot tub for relaxing under starry lights,
Outdoor trails to explore, fire pits to warm,
Shortbread and whiskey, to weather any storm.

A library for bookworms, a snug area with a fire,

A dining table fit for a king, to never tire,
Special occasions celebrated in style,
Birthdays, weddings, making memories worthwhile.

Dog friendly too, for furry friends to roam,
In this house that feels just like home,
No need to worry, just relax and unwind,
In Stucktaymore House, serenity you'll find.

So come to this haven, where joy is near,
With laughter and love, forever clear,
Stucktaymore House, a place of bliss,
Where family and friends gather, for moments like this.
